

PGTAG

The TAG Program

The Prince George's County Talented and Gifted (TAG) program, initiated in 1972, is a specialized curriculum for intellectually gifted students. The program is designed to develop advanced competencies in higher thinking skills through challenging educational experiences and courses.

PGTAG is a volunteer organization of parents, students, educators and others who support the Prince George's County TAG program.

What does PGTAG Do?

- ✓ Disseminates information about current and proposed TAG programs in PG County.
- ✓ Helps members find county, state and nationwide resources for TAG services and materials.
- ✓ Answers questions about parenting talented and gifted children.
- ✓ Advocates for quality education and strong TAG programs.
- ✓ Supports services for gifted students with special learning needs.

Why should you join PGTAG?

- ✓ For help in finding out if your child is talented and gifted.
- ✓ To hear about testing, evaluation and special events that can benefit your TAG child.
- ✓ To stay informed of administrative and legislative issues affecting delivery of services to your gifted child.
- ✓ To network with others involved with TAG students and TAG education.
- ✓ To give TAG programs and TAG education a stronger voice.
- ✓ To support recognition of teachers of TAG students.
